

PROMOTES DEMOCRACY

- Provides funding to support allies and partners of the United States, with $1.6 billion to promote a free and open Indo-Pacific and help counter the growing influence of the People's Republic of China in developing countries
- Funds a $183 million effort to increase democracy programs and provides $315 million for the National Endowment for Democracy (NED)

SUPPORTS THE DISPLACED AND VULNERABLE

- Meets urgent humanitarian needs, many of which have been exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic:
 - $6.8 billion for humanitarian assistance under the accounts Migration & Refugee Assistance (MRA), U.S. Emergency Refugee & Migration Assistance (ERMA), and International Disaster Assistance (IDA) with additional funds for those fleeing Ukraine or dealing with the impacts of COVID-19

REBUILDS PUBLIC HEALTH INFRASTRUCTURE

- Dramatically increases funding to confront the current COVID-19 pandemic, prevent future pandemics, and shore up gains made in global health:
 - $9.83 billion to support the health of families and communities around the world
 - Included is a substantial investment in global health security to prevent future pandemics through both bilateral and multilateral mechanisms

CONFRONTS THE CLIMATE CRISIS

- Expands global efforts to address environmental threats and reduce emissions by recommending over $1.5 billion to address the Climate Crisis and other environmental issues

ADVANCES WOMENS' RIGHTS

- Provides $575 million for family planning and $32.5 million for the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA)
- The bill includes $200 million for the Gender Equity and Equality Action Fund, $50 million to support women's leadership, $175 million to prevent and respond to gender-based violence, and $130 million to support the Women, Peace and Security Strategy.