

FINANCIAL SERVICES AND GENERAL GOVERNMENT

Chairman Mike Quigley

Fiscal Year 2022 Appropriations Bill At-A-Glance

Provides $29.1 billion, an increase of more than 19 percent, to support small businesses, protect consumers, rebuild the IRS, and secure our elections

Grows Opportunity for Small Businesses

- Invests in programs to help small businesses and entrepreneurs access capital and contracting opportunities through $1 billion for the Small Business Administration, including $323.8 million for Entrepreneurial Development Programs
- Funds financial and technical assistance grants and increases the availability and affordability of small-dollar loans with $330 million for Community Development Financial Institutions

Protects Consumers

- Supports working and middle-class families by increasing funding for antitrust and consumer protection activities at the Consumer Product Safety Commission with $172 million and the Federal Trade Commission with $390 million

Rebuilds the IRS

- Rebuilds the Internal Revenue Service with $13.6 billion, an increase of $1.7 billion, to help the agency crack down on big corporations and the wealthy who aren't paying their fair share and to provide better customer service to working families navigating the tax system
- Supports the monthly distribution of expanded Child Tax Credit payments

Secures our Elections

- Protects our democracy with funding to ensure the integrity and safety of our elections, including $500 million for Election Security Grants to help states protect elections
- Removes policy provisions that limit campaign finance transparency

Confronts the Climate Crisis

- Provides $300 million for the Electric Vehicle Fund to start the transition of the Federal vehicle fleet to electric and zero emission vehicles