

House Republican Funding Bill Denies Education and Training Opportunities for Students and Job Seekers at All Stages of Life in Utah

The House Republican 2024 Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education bill, and its 28 percent cut of $64 billion, portends their intent to end public education in America and eliminate job opportunities for young adults and working families.

In Utah, the extreme House Republican bill would:

- Reduce services for young children. The bill will eliminate access to early childhood education for 400 children in Utah through cuts to Head Start.
- Kick teachers out of classrooms. Under this bill, during a severe nationwide teacher shortage, 1,000 teachers could be removed from classrooms serving low-income students in Utah due to House Republican cuts to Title I.
- Eliminate services for English learners. The House Republican bill eliminates federal support for vital academic services for 55,400 English learners in Utah through the elimination of English Language Acquisition (Title III).
- Eliminate Federal Work Study. The bill eliminates Federal Work Study for the 2,700 students who need it in Utah to help finance a postsecondary education, limiting their potential earnings and future success in the job market.
- Eliminate need-based financial aid. The House Republican's bill takes away need-based financial aid for 27,900 students in Utah through the elimination of Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (SEOG).
- Eliminate youth employment opportunities. The bill eliminates WIOA Youth Job Training, which would deny job training and employment services for 500 youth in Utah who face barriers to finding a good paying job.
- Eliminate adult employment opportunities. The bill eliminates WIOA Adult Job Training, which would deny job training and employment services for 900 adults in Utah who face barriers to finding a good paying job.
