Financial Services and General Government

Bill Text | Committee Report

The 2022 Financial Services and General Government funding bill includes $29.1 billion, an increase of $4.8 billion over 2021. The legislation:

- Assists small businesses and entrepreneurs through the Small Business Administration and Community Development Financial Institutions
- Protects our democracy with Election Security Grants to ensure the integrity and safety of our elections
- Rebuilds the Internal Revenue Service to finally crack down on big corporations and the wealthy who aren't paying their fair share and to provide better customer service to working families navigating the tax system
- Supports working and middle-class families by increasing funding for consumer protection activities at the Consumer Product Safety Commission and the Federal Trade Commission
- Confronts the climate crisis by providing funding to start the transition of the Federal vehicle fleet to electric and zero emission vehicles

Summary:

Department of the Treasury – For fiscal year 2022, the bill provides a total of $15.4 billion in discretionary appropriations for the Department, an increase of $1.9 billion above the FY 2021 enacted level and equal to the President's request. Important Policy Changes:

- Strengthens our democracy:
 - Campaign Finance Transparency Eliminates three provisions that limit transparency into political spending.
 - Apportionment Transparency Includes a new provision requiring OMB to make apportionments of appropriations publicly available in a timely manner and provides $1 million to OMB to implement such a system.
 - Improvements in Budget Execution Includes new provisions that require budget authority be made available prudently for obligation, executive agencies to provide budget and appropriations information to the Government Accountability Office (GAO)

- promptly, and agencies to notify Congress of certain delays or restrictions in apportionment of appropriations.
- Recordkeeping Includes a new provision related to recordkeeping requirements for certain GAO audits.
- Respects the dignity of immigrants: Includes new language making Dreamers eligible for Federal employment.
- Fosters equality for women and men: Eliminates provisions preventing the FEHBP from covering abortion services.
- Supports equity and inclusion: Includes a new provision that creates a commission to identify and recommend name changes or removal of Federal property that is inconsistent with the values of diversity, equity, and inclusion.
