State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs

The fiscal year 2025 State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs (SFOPS) funding bill invests $51.7 billion in United States global leadership and cooperation. The bill is $7 billion, a 12 percent cut, below fiscal year 2024 and $12 billion below the Biden Administration’s fiscal year 2025 request.

This legislation:

- Threatens national security by abdicating U.S. world leadership at the United Nations (UN) and other multilateral and international financial institutions by not including any funding for the UN Regular budget, the UN Development Program, UN Women, and UNICEF.

- Threatens women’s health globally by prohibiting the United States from contributing to the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA), substantially underfunding bilateral family planning, and reinstating the Global Gag Rule on non-governmental organizations that receive U.S. assistance.

- Hampers the U.S. response to the climate crisis by eliminating support for communities’ ability to adapt to weather changes, sustainable landscapes, and clean energy programming.

- Underfunds the operations and staffing of the State Department and U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID).
